

Why should I have to be bothered by companies I have no interest in hearing from. I can assure you that I will never ever do any business over the phone unless I am the one that initiates the call. So please tell me why companies/individulas should be allowed to contract me if my number is unlisted and I am not interested?